

From Crumbs to Conversations

<https://releasingkings.com/2023-09-03-from-crumbs-to-conversations/>

A Kingdom Business Assessment

This questionnaire will help you identify whether you're living on "crumbs" or having actual conversations with Father in His Council. Answer honestly—this is your journey from self-sufficiency to sonship.

Part 1: The Mask of Self-Sufficiency

1. How would you describe your public business persona?

- ☐ Self-sufficient and confident—I rarely show vulnerability
- ☐ Humble and approachable—I'm open about my struggles
- ☐ Somewhere in between—depends on the situation
- ☐ I wear a mask of success but feel fragile inside
- ☐ I'm authentic but feel pressure to appear stronger than I am

2. "We're all fragile; some are wise enough to deal with it, and others wear masks until they break." Which describes you?

- ☐ I'm wise enough to acknowledge my fragility
- ☐ I'm wearing a mask and it's starting to crack
- ☐ I'm somewhere in transition
- ☐ My mask already broke—that's why I'm here
- ☐ I don't think I'm fragile

3. In your business peer groups, do you find yourself in "Shark Tank mode"?

- ☐ Yes, constantly competing and posturing
  - ☐ Sometimes—it's hard to be vulnerable
  - ☐ Rarely—I've found safe community
  - ☐ Never—I'm open about failures and struggles
  - ☐ I avoid business peer groups for this reason

Part 2: Hearing from God in Business

4. How would you describe your current paradigm for hearing God in business?

- ☐ I don't have one—I operate mostly on wisdom and talent
- ☐ I attend church but don't connect God to my business
- ☐ I pray for blessing but don't expect conversation
- ☐ I'm learning to hear Father in His Council
- ☐ I regularly have conversations with Father about my business

5. Which statement resonates most with your experience?

- ☐ "I'm living on crumbs that fall from the table rather than knowing God"
- ☐ "I do things apart from God and wonder why they didn't work"
- ☐ "I have a sense that God doesn't care about my business"
- ☐ "I'm transitioning from crumbs to conversations"
- ☐ "I regularly feast at Father's table in His Council"

6. Rate this statement: "I can do almost everything in business apart from God" (1 = Disagree, 5 = Agree)

1 2 3 4 5

How does this realization make you feel?

Part 3: The Mt 7:22 Test

Read this paraphrase from the blog:

"Lord, Lord... Didn't our business have great marketing and sales? And leverage our KPIs to produce a great product? And have healthy cash flow with large profit margins?"

Then I will tell them plainly, "I Never knew you!"

7. Does this passage challenge your current approach to business?

- ☐ Yes, deeply—I realize I've been self-sufficient
- ☐ Somewhat—I see areas where I operate without Father
- ☐ A little—but I'm not sure what to change
- ☐ No—I'm confident Father knows me
- ☐ This confuses me

8. Which mask do you tend to wear?

- ☐ Religious mask—self-righteous
- ☐ Secular mask—self-sufficient
- ☐ Both at different times
- ☐ Neither—I'm learning authentic sonship
- ☐ I'm not sure

9. What substitutes for hearing God have you relied on? (Check all that apply)

- ☐ Biblical promises without hearing Father personally
  - ☐ Doing what seems right in my own eyes
  - ☐ Traditions of men or church culture
  - ☐ Pet doctrines and favorite teachings
  - ☐ Secular philosophies and business wisdom
  - ☐ Charismatic "crumbs" (words, dreams, other people's prophecies)
  - ☐ Devotionals and commentaries instead of conversation
  - ☐ Religious busyness and "serving" someone else's vision
  - ☐ Prophetic ministry to others while neglecting my own Council conversations
  - ☐ None—I hear Father directly in His Council

Part 4: The Age of Sonship

10. Do you identify as a "Caleb personality" in business? (Assertive, entrepreneurial, faith-filled)

- ☐ Yes, absolutely
- ☐ Somewhat—I have some of these traits
- ☐ Not really—I'm different
- ☐ I'm not sure what this means
- ☐ Yes, and I'm discovering Father is looking for people like me

11. Which transition are you experiencing? (Ephesians 3:19-20)

- ☐ Experiencing a love that surpasses my self-sufficiency
- ☐ Being filled with God's Spirit of Wisdom and Truth
- ☐ Being anointed for Kingdom exploits in business

- ☐ All of the above
- ☐ None yet—but I want to
- ☐ I'm skeptical about this

12. What's your current understanding of the difference between "children" and "sons"?

- ☐ I didn't know there was a difference
- ☐ Children = relationship; Sons = status and inheritance rights
- ☐ I'm experiencing the transition from servant to son (Gal 4:6-7)
- ☐ I understand it theologically but not experientially
- ☐ I'm living as an heir doing Father's business

Part 5: Access to Father's Council

13. Have you experienced ascending to Father's Council?

- ☐ Yes, regularly—I have conversations there
- ☐ A few times—I'm learning
- ☐ I've attempted it but unsure if I'm doing it right
- ☐ No, but I want to learn
- ☐ No, and I'm skeptical about this concept
- ☐ I didn't know this was possible

14. Do you understand the statement: "Jesus was always able to do what He saw His Father doing (Jn 5:19) because He accessed Father's Council"?

- ☐ Yes, and I'm practicing this same access
- ☐ Yes, but I don't know how to apply it
- ☐ Somewhat—I need more understanding
- ☐ No—this is new to me
- ☐ I'm not sure this applies to business

15. Which role resonates most with how you see yourself in Kingdom business?

- ☐ Ambassador—implementing Father's purpose in business
- ☐ Warrior—bringing Heaven to Earth (Reformation)
- ☐ Ecclesia—establishing Kingdom culture of love in business
- ☐ All of the above
- ☐ None—I'm still operating as a servant/employee
- ☐ I'm in transition from servant to son

16. Have you engaged with the Seven Spirits of God in your business?

- ☐ Yes, regularly—they guide my business strategy
- ☐ I've started exploring this
- ☐ I've heard of this but don't know how
- ☐ No—this is completely new to me
- ☐ I'm skeptical about this approach

Part 6: Crumbs vs. Conversations

17. Which best describes your current spiritual diet in business?

- ☐ Crumbs: Living on occasional prophetic words, Bible verses, or advice
- ☐ Snacks: Regular prayer and devotionals, but no direct conversation
- ☐ Meals: Having actual conversations with Father about my business
- ☐ Feasting: Seated at the table as a son/daughter, co-laboring with Father
- ☐ Starving: I have no spiritual connection to my business

18. Rate these statements (1 = Never, 5 = Always):

- I hear Father's direction for my business decisions: 1 2 3 4 5
- I know what Father is doing and align my work with it: 1 2 3 4 5
- I operate from Council conversations, not formulas: 1 2 3 4 5
- My business feels like co-laboring with Father: 1 2 3 4 5

19. "Sons love co-laboring with their Father. The Father/son love language is putting them in the game and giving them the ball." Does this describe your experience?

- ☐ Yes—this is exactly how I experience Father in business
- ☐ I'm beginning to experience this
- ☐ I want this but don't have it yet
- ☐ This sounds too good to be true
- ☐ No—my experience with God feels more like duty/obligation

20. Complete this sentence: "Father's purpose in my business feels like..."

[Free response]

Part 7: The Transition

21. Where are you in the transition from self-sufficiency to sonship?

- ☐ Still fully self-sufficient—just beginning to question this
- ☐ Aware I need help but don't know where to start
- ☐ Learning to access Father's Council
- ☐ Transitioning from crumbs to conversations
- ☐ Regularly seated at the table, co-laboring as a son/daughter

22. What's your biggest obstacle to moving from crumbs to conversations?

- ☐ I don't know how to ascend to Father's Council
- ☐ Fear of what I might hear (or not hear)
- ☐ My business success makes me feel like I don't need God
- ☐ Religious training that didn't include this paradigm
- ☐ Skepticism about whether this is real
- ☐ Time/busyness—I'm too distracted
- ☐ Other: _____

23. "Servants settle for crumbs; Sons are heirs seated at the table." Which are you?

- ☐ I'm currently a servant settling for crumbs
- ☐ I'm transitioning from servant to son
- ☐ I'm a son seated at the table
- ☐ I'm somewhere in between
- ☐ I don't understand the difference yet

24. On a scale of 1-10, how hungry are you for actual conversations with Father in His Council?

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Part 8: The Caleb Invitation

25. "Kingdom Business is here, and you're invited!" How does this invitation land with you?

- ☐ This is exactly what I've been longing for
- ☐ Intrigued but cautious
- ☐ Excited and ready to learn
- ☐ Skeptical but curious
- ☐ Overwhelmed—I don't know where to start

- [ ] This resonates deeply with my entrepreneurial spirit

26. What would it look like for you to be "celebrated in Heaven" for your business exploits?

[Free response]

27. If you could ask Father one question about your business right now, what would it be?

[Free response]

Scoring Guide

Self-Sufficiency Level (Questions 1-3): If you're wearing masks and struggling with fragility, you're ready for the transition to authentic sonship.

Crumbs vs. Conversations (Questions 4-9): Count how many "substitutes" you checked in question 9. The more you rely on substitutes, the more you're living on crumbs rather than conversations.

Sonship Readiness (Questions 10-16): If you resonate with the Caleb personality and are experiencing Father's love surpassing your self-sufficiency, you're in the transition to sonship.

Council Access (Questions 13-16, 18): Your scores reveal whether you're accessing Father's Council or operating from formulas and advice.

Current State (Questions 17, 21, 23): These questions show where you are on the journey from servant/self-sufficiency to son/co-laboring.
