

10 Levels of Conversational Prayer: From Asking to Co-Laboring

Phase #1 — Self

Personal Identity: decisions from self & sensuality

1. Silent — I don't pray out loud... now I can. First step: giving prayer a voice at all.
2. Petition — Prayer is me asking God to do things for me. Still self-directed; God is a resource.

Phase #2 — Servant

Rules, principles, learning to hear while still leading with technique

3. Spirit-Enabled — I'm praying in tongues. First time I'm not constructing the words myself — control starts loosening, even if the agenda hasn't shifted yet. His Spirit in me is real.
4. Receiving — I'm getting promptings from Holy Spirit... now. First taste of being addressed, not just addressing. Prayer becomes two-way, even if still occasional.

Phase #3 — Sonship

Fathering Sons: co-laboring from the Council

5. Pivot — I'm asking Father what's on His heart, so I can do what He's doing (Jn 5:17, 19) and say what He is saying (Jn 12:49). The actual turn from servant to son — agenda shifts from mine to His. Everything before this is preparation; everything after is Sonship.
6. Fellowship — I'm having conversations in the Council. Regular, ongoing access via Ascension — not an event, a relationship with Father, Jesus, and the 7 Spirits. I'm bringing stuff back!
7. Jesus My Advocate — I can take accusations to the Courts of Heaven and get decrees. Sonship matures into standing, Winning in Warfare — identity isn't just felt; it's legally settled and defended.
8. Commissioned — I've got my Kingdom purpose from Father in writing. Revelation becomes Co-laboring, something durable enough to build a life on; I'm bringing Heaven to Earth in a Reformation!
9. Vocational — Father's purpose is finding expression in my vocation; the business, the trade, the seat I sit in becomes a Reformation vehicle, not a separate compartment from “ministry.” I'm seeing what Father adds when I put Kingdom first (greater works).
10. Fathering — I'm reproducing Sonship in others. Purpose stops terminating on me; I'm interceding for others; what Jesus' intercession did for me — Reformation of People, Business, Cities, Nations.

Co-laboring from the Council. Ascending, conversations that include the 7 Spirits. Seeing what's in Father's heart, what is He doing now. Sons, bringing Father's purpose and power to earth, Reformation of People, Business, Education, Cities, Cultures, Nations!
